Special Activities

■ WA-ACEP Board of Directors Meeting
All WA-ACEP members are invited to the Board of Directors meeting Wednesday, April 27 at 5:30 pm at the Bell Harbor Conference Center. Please RSVP to plp@wsma.org.

■ Poster Presentations
Check out informative and innovative poster presentations and connect with the poster authors during the 2016 Summit to Sound. The posters will be on display April 28 and 29. Want to submit a poster? Send an electronic copy of your abstract by Feb. 29, 2016 to jasonheiner@hotmail.com for consideration. Don’t miss this excellent educational opportunity!

■ Welcome Reception
Wrap up your Thursday by enjoying a beverage while you visit various exhibit booths. This is your opportunity to network with company representatives and other meeting participants.

■ Journal Club
Each year, Summit to Sound attendees tackle controversial subjects during our interactive Journal Club session. This year, EM residents will present Are We Really Choosing Wisely? Literature Evidence for Decreasing Radiation. Registrants will receive electronic links to the articles prior to the discussion.

■ Tales from the Pit
Physicians, PAs, RNs and EMTs are invited to bring their entertaining and educational cases to the session and provide a brief presentation. The audience will vote and cash prize will be awarded for the following categories: Craziest Case, Most Heartwarming, Saved by my Nurse, as well as others. All participants will be awarded a “Tales from the Pit” t-shirt. Interested? Submit a brief description of your case to plp@wsma.org by March 11, 2016. Submissions should follow HIPAA guidelines. Cases chosen for presentation during the April 29 session will be notified by March 25, 2016.

■ Professional Development Reception
Attendees, medical students and residents are invited to join us for this informative session about career development and management. A variety of topics important to this group will be discussed followed by a Q&A session in which WA-ACEP and ACEP leaders will respond to your questions. A brief reception will follow.
Featured Speakers

Christopher H. Anderson, JD

Christopher H. Anderson is a founding member in the Seattle law firm of Fain Anderson VanDerhoef Rosendahl O’Halloran Spillane, PLLC. Mr. Anderson’s practice is focused in the areas of health care professional liability, including the representation of physicians, hospitals and other health care providers in medical malpractice litigation and in licensing and disciplinary disputes, and product liability litigation. Mr. Anderson was named by Seattle Magazine as one of the region’s top attorneys in 2005 in the field of medical malpractice defense.

Marianne Gausche-Hill, MD, FACEP, FAAP

Dr. Gausche-Hill is the Medical Director for Los Angeles County Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Agency, Professor of Clinical Medicine and Pediatrics at the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA, and the EMS Fellowship Director at Harbor-UCLA Medical Center. She is nationally known for her work as an EMS researcher and educator, and for her leadership in the field of EMS and pediatric emergency medicine. She is best known for her study of pre-hospital airway management for children published in JAMA 2000 and her work on the National Pediatric Readiness Project published in JAMA-Pediatrics in 2015.

In 2004 she was awarded the National Education Award in Emergency Medicine by the American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP), in 2005 was awarded the Martha Bushore-Fallis APLS award from the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP), in 2007 was awarded the “Emergency Medical Services for Children Heroes Award for Lifetime Achievement” by the Health Resources and Services Administration, The Federal EMS for Children Program, in 2008 was named one of the “Heroes of Emergency Medicine” by ACEP, in 2010 was a finalist for the Daily Breeze Newspaper’s Healthcare Provider of the Year, in 2011 was the Honorable Mention Speaker of the Year for ACEP, in 2012 was awarded the Steve Miller Education and Mentorship Award by the AAP, in 2013 was awarded Woman of the Year by the National Association of Professional Women, and the Distinguished Service in EMS Medal by the State of California, and in 2014 was awarded the Outstanding Contribution in EMS award as well as the Speaker of the Year Award by ACEP. Dr. Gausche-Hill currently serves on the American Board of Emergency Medicine Board of Directors.

David Andrew Talan, MD, FACEP, FIDSA

Dr. Talan received his medical degree from the University of Illinois Medical College in Chicago. He completed his residencies (Internal and Emergency Medicine) and Infectious Diseases fellowship at the University of California Los Angeles (UCLA) and its associated medical centers. He is board certified in Internal Medicine, Emergency Medicine, and Infectious Diseases.

Currently, Dr. Talan is Chairman of the Department of Emergency Medicine and faculty in the Division of Infectious Diseases at Olive View-UCLA Medical Center, and Professor of Medicine in Residence at UCLA School of Medicine. He is a Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians and the Infectious Diseases Society of America, and a member of the Society for Academic Emergency Medicine and the American Society for Microbiology.

Dr. Talan serves on the editorial boards of the Annals of Emergency Medicine, Emergency Medicine News, and Pediatric Emergency Care and is a reviewer for Clinical Infectious Diseases, JAMA, and The Medical Letter. Dr. Talan has written and researched extensively on acute infectious diseases, including animal and human bites, rabies, tetanus, pyelonephritis, meningitis, sepsis, and MRSA skin and soft tissue infections. He has recent publications in the New England Journal of Medicine and JAMA. His current research focuses on emergency department-based surveillance for and epidemiological research of emerging infections. He is principal investigator of a CDC-supported emergency department-based national sentinel network for research on emerging infectious diseases in the United States called EMERGEncy ID NET. He is also principal investigator of an NIH contract to study off patent antibiotics to treat skin and soft tissue infections caused by community-associated MRSA.

Evie Marcolini, MD, FACEP, FAAEM

Dr. Marcolini is an Assistant Professor in emergency medicine and critical care at Yale University School of Medicine. She completed a fellowship in surgical critical care at R Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center in Baltimore, and now divides her clinical time at Yale between the emergency department and neurosurgical intensive care unit. She is the Medical Director of SkyHealth, a critical care helicopter transport service shared by Yale New Haven Hospital and Long Island Jewish/North Shore Hospital. Dr. Marcolini was awarded the National Junior Faculty Award by American College of Emergency Physicians in 2014, and has been active internationally, teaching and lecturing in Egypt, India, Vietnam, Argentina and Europe. She is also active in wilderness medicine, teaching for Wilderness Medical Associates International. Prior to becoming a physician, she worked as a paramedic/firefighter for six years. Dr. Marcolini has been an instructor for Outward Bound, a full time ski patroller, and is a member of Mahoosuc Mountain Search and Rescue, and Franklin County Search and Rescue. She enjoys rock and ice climbing, mountaineering and skiing, and has climbed extensively in the lower 48; other expeditions have included the Dolomites, New Zealand Southern Alps and the Alaska Range including Denali.
